

Additional Call for Applications Erasmus+ for Students SUMMER 2019

The Hochschule für nachhaltige Entwicklung Eberswalde (Eberswalde University for Sustainable Development - EUSD) publishes an additional call for applications for an exchange semester under the Erasmus+ programme during the summer term 2019.

The call is open for the new M.Sc. “Forestry System Transformation” (FST), which is completely taught in English language. An overview of the contents and modules of the 2nd semester can be found on our website: <https://www.hnee.de/fst> .

If you are selected to participate in the Erasmus+ program as an exchange student, you will receive a grant that assures the payment of the living costs in Germany (800€/ month). Each selected participant will also get a travel contribution of 275€. The summer term 2019 starts at March 18, 2019 and ends on August 2, 2019 (it is expected of all students to arrive at least a week before the start of the term).

If you want to participate, you need to apply at the International Office of your home university and submit the following documents:

- Letter of intent (naming the program you would like to study in, your motivation and what you expect to be the benefit of such an exchange for your student and professional life)
- CV;
- Transcript of Record;
- Proof of enrolment;
- Certificate of your English language proficiency depending on the main language of the study programme (English B2 according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages CEFR)
